

Book berths for sailing Olympics

Applications for booking visitor berthing in Weymouth and anchorage in Weymouth Bay during the sailing events of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games are now open. All berths and anchorages between 16 July and 9 September 2012 must be pre booked. To avoid disappointment please book early. The first phase of applications closed on 12 December 2012. The response was good response and all those customers who have been allocated a berth have until 5 February 2012 to confirm their booking. All requests for bookings now received are being held over and will be allocated after 5 February and must be confirmed no later than 1 March.

course area and restricted zones

It will not be possible for visiting boats to enter Weymouth and Portland Harbours and expect to be accommodated during Games time without pre booking their berth or anchorage. It is essential that bookings are made in advance, as it is expected that all available berths and anchorages will be fully booked, well before the start of the Olympic Games. Weymouth and Portland Harbours will still be accessible at all times during the Games, via a dedicated channel and will continue to operate as working harbours for ferry services to the Channel Islands, commercial shipping, fishing, diving and other recreational water based activities. There will however be restrictions on the waters within Weymouth Bay and Portland Harbour where the race areas are located, (known as the field of Play) during race times themselves.

Olympic sailing will take place between 28 July and 12 August 2012

Paralympic sailing will take place between 29 August – 6 September 2012
